Re: 1:15-fp-380, Gonzalez v. FNU Fitzpatrick, et al

Dear Mr. Gonzalez,

On October 29, 2015, the court received your correspondence inquiring as to the status of your case and the in forma pauperis process. The court is in receipt of all the appropriate IFP forms, except a signed Prisoner Consent Form. By signing the Prisoner Consent Form, you are agreeing that the prison officials can withdraw a percentage of money from your prison account, in monthly installments, payable to the U.S. District Court until the filing fee has been paid in full.

The Filing Fee Omitted Order, that was mailed to you on September 17, 2015, indicated that this action will not be considered a civil case or any action taken until the appropriate fee has been received or in forma pauperis status has been granted. In short, your case is at a stand-still until one of the above referenced options is received by the court.

If you have any other questions, please do not hesitate to contact the clerk's office.

Very truly yours,

DANIEL J. LYNCH, CLERK
